...working the nets for kingdom advancement

A Message From the Rev. Jim Barnes, National Minister

THE PROBLEM IN A POST-DENOMINATIONAL AGE IS THAT PEOPLE ARE GOING TO HELL!

While most of the historic “mainline” Christian denominations have succumbed to the influence of extreme liberal theology and a willingness to embrace the unbiblical social mores of our society, there is now a movement to form new, biblically grounded associations and fellowships born out of these historic traditions. The Evangelical Association was created in 1998 as evangelical Christians were fleeing the liberal United Church of Christ and/or looking for a place to have fellowship with each other while remaining in the denomination and working for renewal. In the last few years, the North American Lutheran Church has formed in response to the liberal shift going on in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and most recently, the Evangelical Covenant Order of Presbyterians has come into existence for those reacting to the decision in the Presbyterian Church USA to remove the fidelity and chastity requirement for ordination.

The question for all of these new, “post denominational” groups is:

Why do they (we) exist?

Certainly, groups like the Evangelical Association and others exist to provide a refuge for biblically grounded Christians reacting to denominational liberalism. We also exist to help churches and pastors stay connected within our various traditions as we seek to carry out the work of ministry and network together. But personally, I like the reason given by the Rev. John Ortberg, pastor of Menlo Park Presbyterian Church in California who said this about “why” these new groups are formed as he was discussing the creation of the new Presbyterian group:

“The origin of the word ecology comes from the Greek oikos. Every organism lives in a larger system. A healthy ecosystem filters out toxins so that organisms can thrive.’ That, Ortberg says, is the vision of the new group of which he is a part. ‘Specifically, the goal is to build a spiritual ecosystem that in turn builds flourishing churches that make disciples of Jesus Christ.’ He then went on to say, ‘The problem is not denominational ambiguity or ecclesiastical dividedness or even ineffectiveness. The problem is that people are going to hell. Our problem is hell, and our job is to put hell out of business - that’s why Jesus went to the cross on a Friday and laid in a tomb and rose on Easter morning.’” (Presbyterian Layman, Vol. 45, No.1, Jan. 2012)

My friends, the Evangelical Association exists because the job of every local church is to be in the business of putting hell out of business! The reason we network together with one another as clergy and congregations in the EARCCC is because a united assault is always stronger than a divided one. As we partner with each other in ministry and mission, evangelism gets done, souls are saved and Kingdom work advances as together we proclaim that God has offered all the world a way to be “rescued from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves!” (Colossians 1:13)

It's time to think about 2012 Convocation coming up in September in Louisville, Kentucky! It will be here before you know it, so mark your calendar and plan to attend. Many of the host churches make regional favorites and go out of their way to offer great hospitality. Another thing I look forward to is the worship and learning. I always come away with new insights and filled to over-flowing. I am looking forward to seeing many of you at Bethel-St. Paul for this year's convocation!

“A CALL TO PRAYER”

Rev. Dr. Terry L. Downin, New Philadelphia, Ohio

As a founding Board member of our Evangelical Association, I was often required to contemplate “the need for prayer”, and can personally testify to the good fruit of it. From the very beginning, prayer was the foundation of our decision making.

Knowing that God is always faithful, we are all the more compelled to prayer for the good of Christ's church. Thinking of the wise words from a good old hymn...

*“Oh what peace we often forfeit, Oh what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry, everything to God in prayer.”*

-Joseph Scriven

Thankful for what is and hopefully for what will be, let us one and all, Board and Brethren and Congregations, be convicted and convinced to pray faithfully for the mission and ministry of our Association.

“Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4: 6, 7

Without prayer, we cannot succeed!
With prayer, we cannot fail!

Midwest Regional Gathering Held in Ohio

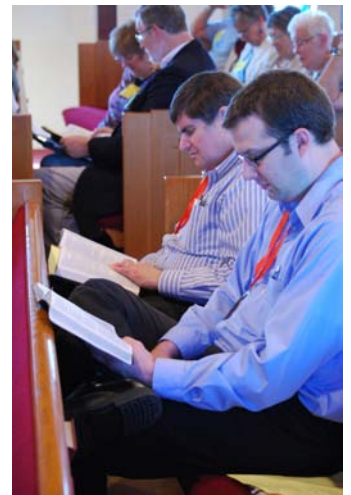

St. John's Christian Church in Archbold, Ohio

People from the upper Midwest gathered on Saturday, March 17 at St. John's Christian Church in Archbold, Ohio for a day of worship and fellowship on the theme of Jesus' Lordship. Keynote speaker, the Rev. Dan Rogers spoke on the "Challenge of the Crown" (I Corinthians 9: 24-27) and the "Mantel of the Crown" (I Thessalonians 2: 17-20). Dan is the director of an inner city mission in Toledo, Ohio that provides comprehensive ministry to those who are struggling in the city.

EA National Minister, the Rev. Jim Barnes spoke in the afternoon on the "Sharing of the Crown" based on Philippians 4:1-9. Throughout the day participants sang, laughed and prayed together. The closing communion service was celebrated by the Rev. Erich Christman and the Rev. Adam Just of St. John's.

Zion Evangelical Becomes Newest Congregation in the EA

Shortly after celebrating their 175th anniversary, the members of Zion Evangelical Church in Millstadt, Illinois voted to affiliate their congregation with the Evangelical Association. Pastor Darrell Weber stated, “While we left the U.C.C. over theological disagreements several years ago, the church had remained independent as we went through a time of adjustment following our departure from the denomination. We now felt it was time to get reconnected with our brothers and sisters in the Evangelical, Reformed, Congregational and Christian traditions who share our common heritage.”

Millstadt is a small German community in Southern Illinois which is changing from rural to suburban rather quickly. Zion has become well known in their small town for hosting contemporary Christian music concerts and has recently called a full-time associate pastor for family life to serve on their ministry team. In May they hope to celebrate their first local church ordination as they partner with the Evangelical Association in recognizing Pastor Craig Frazier’s gifts and calling to ministry.

TAKE A STAND, NOW!

The Rev. Steve Darr, Torrington, Connecticut

“They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, slanderers, God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful; they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents; they are senseless, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Although they know God’s righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them.” Romans 1:29-32

They have taken prayer out of school and our families suffer. They have taken Christianity out of the public square and our families suffer. They have taken away religious rites and freedoms in the name of tolerance and our families suffer. They redefine “marriage” and the family suffers. They approve of “alternative” life styles and our families suffer. They allow abortion on demand and the family suffers. They allow partial birth abortion and infanticide and the family suffers. They hail assisted suicide and euthanasia as acts of heroism and compassion and the family suffers. They bestow more rites on a criminal than on the victim of a crime and the family suffers.

Who are they?

They are not labeled democrat or republican. They are not stamped liberal or conservative. They are the people who have the interest of your children for a good part of the day. They fill the airwaves, the electronic world, with their agendas. Have you looked at your child’s Facebook page lately? Have you seen who they are twittering or better yet who is twittering them? What songs are your children downloading and listening to? What videos are they watching on line? Do you know? Or, in the name of “privacy” have you not really checked?

They are out there, influencing and manipulating our children. They are those spoken of in our scriptures. They know God and yet, do not glorify Him nor do they give Him thanks. God has made himself plain to them. From creation His attributes have been clearly revealed. His power and His divine nature has been shown yet they reject Him. They cannot hide behind lies, behind tolerance, behind ignorance or foolishness or issues of privacy. There is no excuse for their behavior. Because of that behavior, because of their decision to turn away from God, we must be more vigilant than ever.

Look around you at the families of our generation.

The family, the very foundation of our society, is crumbling. The divorce rate is now well over 50% in our country. Promiscuity is at an all time high. Sex outside of marriage is expected and condoned. Drug use is on the rise. Teen suicide continues to take our children at a frightening rate. So what do we do? Usually, we do not address the real issue, our sin, our turning from God and His Word. Instead we throw money at it, or if all else fails, we pass a law to make it legal. How upside down do we need to get before we finally return to God and His laws? How long before we realize the distance we have put between ourselves and God?

Can the family be saved? YES!

But, we cannot wait. Jesus said, “But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept the thief from coming, he would have kept watch and would not let his house be broken into.” (Matthew 24:43) Our houses are being broken into as we sleep, and we allow unbridled access to our children. The electronic predators are at work to lure our children away. Now is the time to rededicate ourselves to protecting and to ensuring the safety of our children and families. We, our families, must return to His Word and commit to remaining true to His laws, commands and decrees. Christ came to save a world full of sinners. He came to offer Himself as the atoning sacrifice that would satisfy the wrath of God. Those who accept Him as Lord and Savior of their lives are saved, are redeemed and are forgiven. Jesus shows us the need of our dependence upon God to overcome the evil that abides in this world. Jesus said, “If anyone is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels.” (Luke 9:26) If you have children, grandchildren or neighborhood kids who come to the house, you have a responsibility, a duty, to speak up, to share Christian values and morals with them, to speak of Jesus. We need to be the voice of reason and of truth in their lives. We must be the voice that speaks of the love and justice of God. The voice that celebrates God’s presence in our own lives and in their lives. Be strong, be bold and take a stand today! Do not let the world take away the hearts of the children. “These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you lie down and when you get up.” (Deuteronomy 6:6,7)
